

"ULY" ULRIKE NIEMANN from Verden, West Germany pieced and quilted two quits while staying with the Hageman family this past month. Uly is a talented artist and conducted many exhibitions while selling her paintings. Uly is the sister of Heiko Niemann who spent the year at the George Hageman home as a foreign exchange student. Both young people loved the United States and would like to attend college at Bozeman.